If you drink alcohol on Slope Day

Eat real food. And plenty of it.

Liquid brunches and lunches are typically a big mistake. They can lead to alcohol poisoning and other health emergencies. So instead of drinking alcohol on an empty stomach, grab a slice or a burrito. Or cook a big meal with your friends. Then, head out to the Slope to make the most of the last day of classes.

Call us if you need us: 607 255-5155  (24/7)