Welcome and Introductions: Travis Apgar and Tim Marchell
- Members attending introduced themselves and Travis reviewed the meeting agenda

Hazing Presentation: Tim Marchell & Travis Apgar reviewed the Cornell University Council on Hazing Prevention September 9, 2014 Presentation
- Shared New York State Law on Hazing and Cornell University definition of Hazing
- Reviewed hazing prevention strategies used at Cornell from 2001 to the present
- Provided examples of hazing along the continuum
- Discussed President Skorton’s challenge and implications for prevention work going forward
- Outlined the Model for Transformational Change within the Greek system at Cornell as well as the Public Health Approach to Hazing Prevention.
- Reviewed the Hazing Website

Hazing Prevention Consortium – Cornell’s Participation: Tim Marchell
- Cornell is in the second year of a three year Consortium working to develop literature reviews and best practices to prevent hazing.
- In spring 2013, University of Maine researchers Dr. Elizabeth Allan and Dr. Mary Madden conducted focus groups and key informant interviews with Cornell students, staff and administrators.
- Action item: Review the hazing prevention literature posted on the Hazing Website

Discuss Subcommittees and Campus Goals: Tim Marchell & Travis Apgar
- Five subcommittees will be formed:
  1. Policy Review & Enforcement
  2. Research & Evaluation
  3. Education & Training
  4. Communication
  5. Non-hazing Group Building
- Action item: Email Denise Thompson (dmt29@cornell.edu) if you are interested in a specific committee

National Hazing Prevention Week Update: Travis Apgar
- National Hazing Prevention Week is September 22-26, 2014
- Cornell will recognize National Hazing Prevention Week by displaying table tents in dining halls and media screens in community centers and academic buildings
- Student groups are recognizing the week with passive programming

Next meeting: October 7, 2014, 4:45-6:00pm