Cornell Social Consultant (CSC) Application
2016—2017

Please complete this application and respond to all the questions. Responses must be printed or typed. Once your application is reviewed, you may be contacted for an interview. Only candidates who complete the application and an interview will be considered for a CSC position. Return your completed application to jb772@cornell.edu or the reception desk on Level 2 of Willard Straight Hall by 5pm on Friday April 29th, 2016.

If you are offered a CSC position, there is a mandatory two-day training on August 21st and 22nd from 9am-5pm at Cornell. As a CSC, you will also be required to attend weekly meetings on Thursdays from 7:00-8:30pm. Weekly meetings for all CSCs will start the week of August 29th and run the full academic year.

1. How did you hear about the Cornell Social Consultant Position?

2. Why do you want to be a Cornell Social Consultant (CSC)?

3. List any extracurricular activities in which you currently participate or have participated in at Cornell (sports teams, student organizations, community groups, Greek affiliation, etc.). What is/was your level of involvement?
4. What has been your experience working with people from various backgrounds, beliefs, etc.?

5. Are there communities at Cornell to which you feel particularly connected?

6. What previous experience (academic, volunteer, peer-educational, personal, or work-related) would be relevant or complementary to your work as a CSC?

7. What do you consider to be core issues for improving the sexual culture on campus?

8. Rather than focusing on the social problems (e.g. alcohol, sexual assault, hazing, etc.) CSCs focus on ways to foster positive social scenes within their communities. Please share one possible way you could affect positive change/improve Cornell's social scene within your community.

9. Imagine that you are a CSC and hear about a “Barbarians and Librarians” party that a group on campus is organizing. In your role as a CSC, part of your job is to work with groups to ensure that their social events are fun and positive. How might you work with the organizers of this party to create a great event?

10. Do you know any current CSCs? If so, please list their name(s).
11. Anything else you would like us to know?
